

Surgical Skills to Create Best Facial Aesthetic

The goal of the orthognathic surgery is not only establish good oral function but also proper facial profile. Since the social media get more and more population, the patients concern the post-operative aesthetic equally important as the oral function. We share our experience of some surgical skills to obtain a better appearance.

Bimaxillary Advancement in Sleep Apnea

CPAP is the standard treatment for OSA patients. However, more and more patients ask for surgical intervention to get rid of the ventilation. MMA is one of the most effective surgical options. We present our experience and discuss the factors to affect the results.